NetTutor FAQ Instructors

For instructors

1. Will NetTutor’s tutors know the material I teach?
   NetTutor tutors operate under an agreement with the schools/ departments called Rules of Engagement (ROE). This limits the interaction between tutors and students. Also, it informs the tutors on what the student should know and the method to demonstrate the knowledge.

2. Can I submit my syllabus?
   Yes! Any information that would be beneficial to the tutor is welcomed. You may also submit which course books you are using so the tutor knows exactly where the student is in the book.

3. As an instructor what access do I have to NetTutor?
   There is no instructor access to NetTutor. Depending upon the time a student accesses NetTutor, she/ he may have a several different tutors assisting them.

4. What approach do the tutors use?
   NetTutor Tutors use the Socratic method. They lead the student to the answer; not just give the answer to their questions.

5. How long will students be able to use NetTutor?
   Students will have a maximum of 8 hours per semester to use NetTutor. If they use their allotted time they may purchase more time through a link within NetTutor.

6. How do they get started?
   Please refer to the Student NetTutor guide located on our website for instructions on how students can get started with NetTutor.

7. What other colleges are using it?
   There are over 250 colleges around the country using NetTutor. In Wisconsin, there are several. Some of them are: UW-Milwaukee, UW- Parkside, BlackHawk Technical College, etc...

8. Can students in the School of Pre-college use NetTutor?
   Unfortunately, because of the grant, Pre-College students may not use NetTutor.

9. Can appointments be made with tutors?
   Yes, beginning January 2016, students will be able to make appointments with NetTutor Tutors.

10. Is NetTutor available to specific students?
    NetTutor is available to students taking college credits or those that are in Pre- College and enrolled in a Pathways program may use NetTutor for English and Math.

Disclaimer: NetTutor is available for most courses at MATC. To inquire about other courses, contact us at matctutor@matc.edu